The Sumter Little Theatre

Presents

OUTWARD BOUND

By

SUTTON VANE

March 27th and 28th, 1941

At

Central School Auditorium

Patrons—Season 1940-41

Mr. & Mrs. Wm. H. Shaw
Mrs. H. D. Barnett
Dr. Murdoch Walker
Mr. & Mrs. Geo. D. Levy
Dr. & Mrs. A. D. Plowden
Mr. L. C. Moise
Mr. & Mrs. Hugh Haynsworth
Major & Mrs. Loring Lee
Mr. J. S. Brody
Miss Elizabeth White
Mr. & Mrs. C. P. Gable
Mrs. J. Bentham Walker
Mr. Thomas Lemmon
Dr. G. L. Zalants
Mrs. M. C. Zemp
Mrs. Leland Moore

Little Theatre Organization

President ..... Margaret Yeadon
Vice President ..... Mary Louise Quincy
Director ..... Betty Lane
Membership ..... C. L. Brown
Ass't Stage Manager ..... Clement Reid
Scenery ..... Perra Johnson
Radio ..... Julia Warren
Publicity ..... Helen Taylor
Costumes and Properties ..... Elsye McKeown
Lighting ..... Lyman Quincy
Stage Carpenter ..... Alex Cunningham

CHARACTERS

(In Order of Appearance)

Scrubby	LeRoy S. Davis
Ann	Louise DuRant Shumate
Henry	Woody Parramore
Tom Prior	Marshall Hindebrand
Mrs. Clivenden Banks	Mary Louise Quincy
Rev. Wm. Duke	Wayne Law Clifton
Mrs. Midget	Nettie Moses
Lingley of Lingley Limited	R. M. Dollard
The Examiner	Leverett S. Tuckerman

ACT I—In Harbour. Morning.

ACT II—At Sea. The Same Evening.

ACT III—About Six Days Later.

SCENE I—Afternoon.

SCENE II—The Night of the Same Day.

Produced by special arrangement with Samuel French of New York

Furniture by Courtesy of

HURST FURNITURE COMPANY

Main Street

DRINK

Coca-Cola

IN BOTTLES

Carolina Coca-Cola Bottling Company

Compliments
of
Claremont Oil Co.
Shell Quaker State
Firestone

Compliments
of
J. C. Penney Co.
Town Clad Clothing

Visit
Brown's Curb Service
After the Show
We Deliver Phone 1050

WFIG
1340
ON YOUR DIAL
AFTER
March 29

LADIES — YOUR FURS

Should be stored now, to save them from both heat damage and moths. Heat in your closets and chests reach a temperature of 100 degrees or more, drying out the oil in the pelts, causing cracking and splitting. Store them with us in an underground concrete vault.
Storage, Remodeling, Repairing, Cleaning and Glazing by an Expert Furrier.

BEE AND DEE DRY CLEANERS
138 N. Main St. Opposite Court House Sumter, S. C.